Academy of Whole Learning Announces
New Principal for K-12 School
*Veteran Teacher & Leader Joins One-of-a-Kind Neurodiverse School

The Academy of Whole Learning is pleased to welcome Ms. Kimberly Strandemo as the new principal.

Strandemo is a leader with a depth of experience and an undeniable passion for serving youth. She brings with her over twenty years of experience working in schools as a teacher and principal. Over the past 20 years, Strandemo has been a world traveler with her husband, a U.S. diplomat, living and working in Beijing, Hong Kong, and Guangzhou (China), and Doha, Qatar.

Her teaching experience includes the International School of Beijing, Hong Kong International School, and the American School of Doha. She served as principal at the Middle East International School in Doha from 2013-2015. She also has teaching and administrative experience in Minnesota and Virginia.

Strandemo graduated from Concordia College in Moorhead with a bachelor's degree in Elementary Education and then acquired a Masters' degree in Educational Leadership from Moorhead State University in 2013.

Strandemo will assume her role as Principal of AOWL effective May 16, 2022.
